Diana, Princess of Wales (Pitkin Guides) Brian Hoey

A magnificent tribute to the Princess of Wales, who remains in people's memories and hearts as one of the most popular members of all time of Britain's royal family. Captured in words from experienced royal author Brian Hoey and stunning full-colour images is a record of every stage of her life—her childhood at the ancestral home, Althorp House in the English countryside, her early days in the public eye following her romance with and subsequent engagement to Prince Charles, her fairy-tale wedding, her joy at and devotion to motherhood, her captivating beauty, grace and eye for fashion and style, and her contributions to charities worldwide.
