This carefully crafted ebook is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents. The 2016 presidential campaign of Hillary Clinton, the 67th United States Secretary of State, was announced in a YouTube video, on April 12, 2015. The wife of former President Bill Clinton, Hillary Clinton was the United States Senator from New York prior to serving as Secretary of State under President Barack Obama, an office she held from 2009 until 2013. The runner-up in the 2008 Democratic primaries, her candidacy in the 2016 election is her second bid for the presidency. Following Super Tuesday victories on March 1, with broad support from minority voters, LGBT voters, and a majority of white voters, Clinton had built a formidable lead.
