Love couldn't have come at a more perfect time. Shante has finally gotten everything that she has so longed for in her life. The man of her dreams has finally stepped up and she has reconnected with her long lost sisters. Not only that, but she has also reconnected with her father whom she haven't seen since she was a child. Just when things start to look up, something tragic intervenes and nearly turns her world upside down. Will she withstand the test of time or will she fold under pressure?

Camille and Mark seem to have gotten it together, but will other people's drama threaten there new found family?
