Deeply in debt to a loan shark, over-sexed dentist Cary Drewel lives in fear of foreclosure and bodily harm. His new practice, though, is missing one rather crucial element—patients. Which, terrifyingly enough, is the one thing his creditors also lack.

Pierce Sharpe, a powerful vampire with a drinking problem—or, more accurately, a problem drinking—can't feed through the pain in his cavity-riddled fangs. In danger of losing his standing in the vampire community, Pierce seeks Cary's dental services. When Cary extracts his canines, Pierce must turn to other bodily fluids for sustenance.

Together, Cary and Pierce find a mutually pleasurable solution to both their problems. Turns out, though, there's more to this dentist-patient relationship than simple suction. What began with raw hunger from each of them might just end in love.
