Dr. Elder and the Five Stages of Grief Ronald S. Remmel

Dr. John Elder has moved from Mars to England, where he is Professor of Physics emeritus at Cambridge University. He develops a persistent headache which, despite his best efforts, does not go away. He tries diverse medical treatments, some orthodox and some highly controversial, to get relief from his pain. In the process his Christian faith is strained nearly to the breaking point. His adopted daughter Gloria, who has been appointed Archbishop of Canterbury in the Church of England, tries to give him spiritual counsel. John experiences the five stages of grief.
