En rojo (Orinoco nº 61) (Spanish Edition) Gisela Kozak

Un joven participa en una marcha. Simultáneamente, un camarógrafo de un canal gubernamental es recriminado en público y una escritora en ciernes imagina una vida distinta a la suya. Muere despellejado un veinteañero con varios asesinatos a cuestas en el mismo instante en el que dos mujeres se entregan a la pasión durante la tregua de una guerra civil. Los espectadores de un viejo cine porno padecen la misma nostalgia pesadora y perversa de una novia desengañada que decide irse a un bar para olvidar. Una feminista antigua pasea su derrota mientras, desde la cárcel, una mujer le reza a su líder a pesar de que este la abandonó.

«En rojo» relata las historias de múltiples personajes cuyas existencias transcurren en la Venezuela del nuevo milenio. El hilo conductor de estos relatos es revelar el entramado secreto de un periodo histórico extremadamente tenso y apasionante, en el que han predominado los grandes discursos, los movimientos de masas y la experiencia descarnada de la invasión de la vida privada por los sucesos de la vida colectiva. Más que un libro de cuentos, se trata de una narración coral que trasluce la potencia, el sufrimiento y la dolorosa belleza de una época feroz.
