I'm In Love with the Coco Dimitri Jones

Two young brothers discover the drug in an unlocked room of their uncle's home, but only one becomes addicted to the lifestyle it soon affords. Demond Dixon, the more gung-ho brother, turns a few grams into kilos with the help of a crack fiend turned business associate named Tish Lomax. She's older and more experienced in cocaine than Demond, and she teaches him everything he needs to know about the game—well, almost everything. He soon becomes sucked in by the fast life of money, power, and more beautiful women than he can handle. A new woman enters his life that threatens Tish's position ... and that's when things begin to spiral out of control.
