This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1921 edition. Excerpt: ...Allen Under the Double Eagle Waper U. S. S. Rhode Island... Allen Veritas Densmore Victorious Phalanx Morse movie-houses has made an appeal to musicians of the higher grade is evidenced by the men employed by Albert F. Wayne, director of the orchestra at the "Stanton." Paul Donath, Dave Nowinski, Paul Kruger and Fritz Dietrich were formerly with the "Symphony," but it does not seem "funny" to find them with Wayne. That the seashore also has its attractions for men formerly domiciled here is proven by the fact that men quite prominent in the profession have taken bag and baggage (and, incidentally, a family or two) to Atlantic City, where they are now located permanently. Jake Dein and Dave Kaplan are directors at two of the leading theatres, while Frank Herrick, "Jim" Magee, John Koch and many others have swelled the ranks of shore musicians for five years or more. J. W. F. Leman is again at the helm of the Steel Pier orchestra at Atlantic City, and without a doubt will repeat his successes of 1919 and 1920. His concerts are well rendered, and the programs are always interesting. Roy Comfort is again his concert master, and "Bob" Leman (a brother) will again assume charge of the dance orchestra connected with the Pier enterprises. A well balanced corps of musicians, which always has sustained a perfect rhythm, is thus assured the lovers of the terpsichorean art, for Bob thoroughly understands his business. Dr. A. Howard Thomas, director of the Lu Lu Temple Band, is quite a busy man. Retiring from the dental profession he is now Grand Recorder of the Grand Commandery of the Knights Templar of Pennsylvania. With his duties of that office, his week-end trips to Atlantic City, the time...
