The second in a series, Son of Man: Miracles of Jesus us a fresh approach to some of the most well-loved and familiar events in the ministry of Christ. In prose and paintings, this book included the stories about Jesus as he turned water into wine, healed the sick and the blind, calmed the raging storm in the Sea of Galilee, and fed the five thousand hungry followers. Whether read as gospel or metaphor, the miracles present compelling answers to our enduring questions about the value of life an the power of love and faith

Susand Easton Black and artist Liz Lemon Swindle once again combine talents and a shared vision of Christ as a man who , in his mortal life, reached down and lifted up those who struggled. This inspirational gift book is sure to be cherished for the beauty of the art and the simple truth of the message.
