Airline Stories That Will Make You Laugh, Smile, Grit Your Teeth, Or Maybe Even Cry Robert Faust
A collection of true stories about the unpredictable things that can happen when air travelers interact with the ticket agents, gate agents, flight attendants and or customer relations staff who work for the airlines.

You'll see yourself in one or more of these stories about involving celebrity travelers, business travelers, leisure travelers, children, teens, adults and even grandmothers. There's something for everyone.

All but two of the stories are "pre-911", when you could walk directly to the boarding gate, expect to be served food during your flight, and not pay too much attention who in line ahead of you or behind you as you walked down the jet way.
