THE PEARL OF THE SINAI: "Your worst enemy cannot harm you as much as your own unguarded thoughts" Joaquin Lavalle

"An exciting mystery mixing historical fact with today's war on terrorism"

Guy Hamilton - English film director

Synopsis:

"How unhappy is he who cannot forgive himself". That was the message Commander Capriano wrote to his disciple before setting out on his last mission. Who could have possibly believed that a German theologian would discover, in the library of an old monastery, entrenched at the end of the world, the oldest Biblical manuscripts known to history and that they would include the key to an enigma dating from the Pharaonic epoch? In the present, however, it is the young David Ruiz, the sceptic special agent, who plunges into a mad and desperate search for the secret, with the one purpose of stopping the evil forces threatening the Earth.

"LOVED the book and the style of writing"

Stephen Casari,

Literary agent
