(Note: this is a standalone novel)

She is the one woman who is always off limits...

College rocker and infamous playboy, John Kingston, has screwed his way through most of the women on campus. But there's one woman he will never touch: his best friend and band mate, Nicki. For four years, he's been her protector and her confidant.

When arrogant frat guy, Axel, attempts to make a claim on her, John suffers a painful wakeup call, quickly realizing that his feelings for Nicki are not purely platonic. Recognizing that Axel's intentions are anything but innocent, John's possessiveness spirals out of control, sparking a dangerous feud.

Nicola Lewis can't bear to be touched. Haunted by an awful past that she has been unable to escape, she has kept her distance from the opposite sex. And she's been just fine living her life that way: safe and uncomplicated with no chance of getting hurt again.

Until an unexpected kiss changes everything...

But John and Nicki must decide whether the burgeoning desire between them is worth the risk. Is this a case of love conquers all, or a huge mistake that could destroy everything?
