Every kid is special.

In fact, every kid is a pearl on its own - an exceptional shining star, a little universe, full of emotions, thoughts and untapped creativity.

With an MA in political science, the author, mother of three, is a relentless researcher of mind and matter. Through her poems, the author wishes to enable children to believe in themselves - no matter what befalls them.

“Selfie” is a short book featuring 10 empowerment children’s poems, written in a captivating and comprehensible style.

these rhymed stories will teach your child a valuable lesson: how to believe in and love themselves.

“Selfie” explores the children’s inner world, a strange combination of insecurity and self-confidence and reflects directly on various existential problems.

From the fascinating poems of the main characters, children will learn how to deal with what others are saying about them, how to cope with disappointment, how to be brave and believe in themselves in order to achieve their dreams.

“Selfie” is a poem book about... the self.

The inner self of children - a universe, filled with sparkling imagination, creativity and inner passion - that needs to be loved and cherished. These 10 clear and flow-rhymed poems will help you and your child explore the fantastic world of the child’s mind and will teach your kid to love themselves for who they are.

The illustrator Rani Primmer is a full-time artist dedicated to creating art that feeds the soul by providing inspiration, motivation and healing to souls in need, including her own. While she has created art since she was a child, it was only recently that she was able to find the courage to begin calling herself an artist out loud. She believes that ALL people have artists hidden inside of them and that the experience of creating art can transform pain and darkness into beauty and light. As a seeker of magic, she is committed to search out the beauty, love, goodness and truth in all the moments of the life...every day, every hour, every minute, every second and share that magic with the world
