Taken - Part One Miranda Dawson

The first part in a new series from Miranda Dawson

Amanda Gibson dedicates every minute of every day to working on a story--a story that will define her entire career as a journalist. When a misunderstanding sends her to the office of William Townsend, the billionaire owner of one of the biggest clothing brands in the country, she can't fight the passion that invades her otherwise organized life.

William can't resist the young woman who walks into his office, but when you're keeping secrets, the last thing you should do is date a journalist.

Amanda wants William and everything he has to offer, but she is also investigating his brother for a story involving bribery and corruption at the highest levels of American government.

Amanda doesn't want to give up on her investigation or her man, but one of them will have to go. Will Amanda put her career first or will she let love into her life for the first time?

NOTE: Taken - Part One ends with a cliffhanger. Parts Two and Three will be released over the next month. A bundle of the three books will go on sale for $2.99 when the three books are all available.
