The Girls Who Have It All Kristen Washington

Everyone knows that high school is all about drama, some fights, finding true friendship, and true love. However, in Diana Waller's case these simple aspects of high school life are taken to the extreme. When the most beautiful girl in high school history, Ashlee Summers, meets Diana she realizes that this might be the first person who could ever out smart her. With strange and bizarre tactics these girls battle it out but one girl might end up leaving K. Wilson Private High School forever. Twisty and dramatic, The Girls Who Have It All tells a story about finding yourself and that one true love will always stand beside you even if you're wrong.
