I never thought an innocent shopping trip would change my life forever...

Sifting happily through the sale racks, I noticed something unusual from the corner of my eye. The security guard was following me!

I was a little offended, after all, I had not done anything so I must look like a criminal.

I decide a good plan of action would be to take shelter in the changing room. As I sat there hiding and pondering my innocence, there comes a knock on the door.

"Hello Miss, it's security please open the door."

I will never forget the events that followed that line.
