Red certainly isn't lonely, definitely doesn't want more of life, and assuredly isn't interested in Mikail Wolf who, by virtue of a curse, turns into a wolf every full moon. He is strong and handsome and utterly captivating, but there's one problem. One monumental, insurmountable problem: Mikail, as a wolf, tried to eat Red's grandmother. Now, Red's grandmother is missing, and the only one who can help Red track her grandmother down is the one person she can't trust: Mikail.

Mikail will do anything to get back into Red's good graces, and helping her find her missing grandmother is the perfect opportunity. Together, they venture into the depths of the Everglade Forest, forced to depend on each other for their very lives...

Caught by the Wolf, the fourth of the Sensual Fairy Stories, is a 10,000 word short story that reveals the pleasure to be found when finally embracing your true nature.

An Excerpt

With a growl, he bounded after Red. "Red, wait. Wait! I'll do it."

She was halfway to her horse, the great warhorse staring at him with death in its eyes. Its ears flattened against its head and it pawed at the ground. Unlike any creature with a functioning brain, Goliath looked for any and every opportunity to bite or stomp on Mikail. Not unlike his mistress.

"You will?" She sounded suspicious, as she ought to. "What's the catch?"

"I want something in return," he said, seizing onto this. It was his only opportunity.

All his life, he'd just wanted Red to notice him. Strong, clever, devoted Red who loved everyone and took crap from no one. He wanted her to see him as a man, and she never had. Granted, she didn't see him as a man now. Instead, she saw him as a monster.

But he had something she wanted – something she needed. He wasn't too good to use that against her.

"Of course you do." She crossed her arms, cocking one hip, defiant and fierce. "What is it?"

"A kiss."

Her defiance turned to incredulity, no small amount of disgust, and...

A wolfish smile spread across his lips. Interest.
