WARNING: This book contains sexual situations and strong language that may be offensive to some.**

When your past has taught you that everything disappears eventually and love doesn't come easy. That Fairy tales are not real and not everyone gets a happy ending, you learn to accept it and move on. That's what Kathrine Harris was taught. Her childhood was surrounded by too much hitting and alcohol. Deserted by her mother and left with her abusive dad, she had to grow walls around her heart.

Bryce Grant knew what loving someone too much looked like and he never wanted any part of it. Protected by darkness he lived a life of not getting too close and making sure no one else did either.

But we have no say when it comes to matters of the heart.

Loving someone isn't something you decide on, it's a feeling that can't be controlled.

She makes him love too much.

He makes her walls crumble.

Lost souls that come from dark past find one another and try to gain trust, but love isn't easy and it never comes without pain.

Can these two broken people heal each other or will they leave hearts broken and more damaged than they were before?
