What happens when a prostitute falls in love with her client, but doesn't plan to quit her job? I'm Star, a sex worker in Amsterdam's Red Light district. I invite you to step through my window. Careful, though. Observing my passionate exchanges may destroy your preconceptions. I adore my profession. I'm many things in the course of one evening—whore, lover, nurse, psychologist and friend. But above all, I'm still a woman. Maybe the truths I've discovered about myself by serving others will help me deal with one customer who's come to mean more than all the others. There's no doubt Rick desires me, but lately our business arrangement seems personal. How can I choose between the profession I love most, and the person I can't live without? I'm greedy. I want both.
