Duoterra [Wife for Three: Chasing Emily] (Siren Publishing Menage and More) Jennifer Denys
Wife for Three [Menage Amour: Erotic Futuristic Sci-Fi Menage a Quatre Romance, M/F/M/M, HEA] Wife wanted to share between three brothers. Could Brianna answer the advert of the Hollis brothers on this planet of Duoterra, colonized for sixty years? Due to a lack of women, all single females have to sign marriage contracts with one or more men. Not liking anyone in her town, and her uncle making a deal to sell her, Brianna runs away to find the Hollis brothers. Rescuing her from a nasty encounter, her meeting with brooding elder brother, Adam, is not good. When her first night with Adam is a disaster, it takes the efforts of the other two-impatient, cocky Curt and sweet, fun-loving Eric-to make her stay. In the following weeks she gets to know them better, but Adam stays aloof. When her uncle arrives claiming breach of contract with the man he had promised her to, is this the opportunity for Brianna to leave? Note: There is no sexual relationship or touching for titillation between or among siblings.  Chasing Emily [Menage and More: Erotic Futuristic Sci-Fi Menage a Trois Romance, M/F/M, public exhibition, spanking, HFN] On the colony planet of Duoterra, unattached women are expected to marry one or more men. But Emily Dubois, a widow in her forties who owns the bar in Frontier, loves her independence too much and the freedom to have sex with whomever she wants-particularly the young men of the area. When she is caught in a compromising position with fun-loving, cocky Finn Taylor, a travelling musician with a commitment phobia, the Judge insists they marry, much to her horror. However, the ceremony is interrupted by another lover-serious, protective, hunky Robin McPherson, who's been in love with Emily for years, but she keeps rejecting his proposal as she had such an awful first marriage. Both younger than her, the men are jealous and fight over Emily, but ensuing events mean that they have to work together to keep their woman from fleeing them. Can they do it?  A Siren Erotic Romance
