Twelve Years A Slave Solomon Northup

A full introduction to the Life of Mr. Solomon Northup has been added to this edition. 'Twelve Years A Slave' is the narration of his experiences as a slave by Solomon Northup. Northup, a resident of Washington city, was kidnapped in 1841 and rescued in 1853 from a cotton plantation near the red river in Louisiana. It is the portrayal of the discrimination and inhuman torture of the colored people by the white race in the days of Social Discrimination, Hatred, Slavery and apartheid. This book is an excellent example of the human barbarism and incivility. The Apartheid and the Slavery started by the white races in the west, and the system of Unaccountability propounded and supported by Brahmins in India are the worst, the fearfully stinking and the most shameful strains on the human souls. It is ironical that, especially in the State of Uttarakhand of India, most of those Brahmins who show the greatest touchiness, got converted from these so called untouchable casts after migrating to hills from the plains.
