Beautiful, Naked & Dead (Moses McGuire Book 1) Josh Stallings

BEAUTIFUL, NAKED AND DEAD is hard-boiled crime novel. Moses McGuire a suicidal strip club bouncer is out to avenge the death of one of his girls. From his East L.A. home, through the legal brothels of Nevada and finally to a battle with the mob in the mountains above Palo Alto, it is a sex soaked, rage driven, road trip from hell.

"Josh Stallings is the kind of writer who shouldn't have to publish for himself, but here he is slugging it out the hard way. Just like one of the hardasses in his own books. The man knows what to do with paper and ink. Read the damn thing."

-Charlie Huston

"Someone once said of Raymond Chandler that he wrote 'as if pain hurt and life mattered.' That's true of Josh Stallings, too. Hop on, kick the starter, and let him lead you on a long, painful, but entertaining ride through Moses McGuire's world. One hint: wear your helmet and your leathers. It might get messy."

-Tad Williams

"It is a rough, bleak yet heart warming tale of hopelessness, evil and love... Stallings is an able guide through the seedy underworld of LA. He describes the destruction of young girls as they descend into a nefarious world that begins with stripping to earn some extra cash, and ends with porn and drug addled prostitution. The girls in the story are not judged or pitied by Stallings, rather he portrays them as real women who are survivors in the brutal and tough corners of society.... The bleakness in the story is expertly balanced with humour... There's lots of guns, blood and bone-crunching badness... You will not be disappointed."
