Sasha Jones, a middle class young woman fresh out of college, is an aspiring political intern, with an impeccable CV. When she lands an interview with Senator James Chilton, she is ecstatic. Not only is he known for his good intentions in the political ring, he's also known for his good looks. He is so impressed with Sasha credentials he interviews her himself.

After a hot and sweaty VERY unorthodox interview the Senator offers her the position. She wants to accept but her instincts tell her otherwise and she accepts an internship elsewhere where she finds herself keeping more than one big secret from her interview with the Senator.
