Young Gib (Gilbert) Evans discovers the cost of freedom when he stands up against the tyranny of adults during the McCarthy Communist witch-hunt of the 1950s. The threat of Communism looms. Paranoia is the focus of wild accusations in Gilbert's town and in America. Richen shines a light on how we give into our darkest urges when manipulated by scare mongers. The Price of freedom artfully illustrates both the human cost of fear and the power of hope.
