It's been approximately five years since, the central city raids and the fakers terrifying reign of terror has come to an end. But now there's A new and more powerful threat approaching central city which forces the black devil to once again step in and take immediate action.

After having both his mother and father murdered, the black skull is forced into a life full of hardship and crime, which eventually leads him to central city prison where he meets the modern league of desolation. He joins their team and they eventually escape from prison.

After prison break, the league of desolation decide to take their revenge and kill their #1 enemy the black devil, expand their operations and take over both, central city and the world. So now it's up to the police force, the army, and the black devil to step in, and stop their evil crimes and operations before its too late.
