When Wendy Jackson lands a job at the local station, she is excited about her future as a disc jockey. Behind the microphone she can be anything that she wants to be, and her plus size frame simply doesn't matter. That is until the day when the station requires that she host a bachelor auction only to discover that one of the available men is the one she always wanted. Michael Carter, the man of her dreams, burned her once before, overlooking her as just another face in the crowd.

Should she dare to believe that he's no longer the superficial guy from college and that he just might be her perfect match? In a face to face meeting where hearts are on the line and emotions run high, this is one high stakes game of Truth or Dare that she will never forget!
