"All Riled Up" Elizabeth Barone

Riley has had a crush on her best friend Max since high school, but he far from returns the favor—even after she stood by his side when his girlfriend got pregnant. Years later, she still can't shake her feelings for him. When he posts an ad online for a live-in nanny because of a joke that she made, Riley loses her mind. It's time for her to get over Max once and for all—but the dating scene after high school is even more brutal than she imagined.

"All Riled Up" is a 5,000-word short story that takes place during the events of the novel, THE NANNY WITH THE SKULL TATTOOS.
