Dialectics of Human Nature in Marx's Philosophy Mehmet Tabak

Dialectics of Human Nature in Marx's Philosophy explores Karl Marx's thought without any ideological agendas, and shows the foundational role the concept of human nature plays in his philosophy. Instead of pitting Marx's humanism against materialism, dialectical and historical, Mehmet Tabak demonstrates their unity in a novel way. The result is a comprehensive account of Marx's thought which the author shows to be simultaneously critical and explanatory. This volume is a crucial addition to the body of scholarship on Marx's work.
