Warning: For Mature Adult Audiences. Contains language and actions some may deem offensive. Sexually explicit content. MF In book four of the Dragons of Dragonose: A major revelation hits the quiet, peaceful place of Dragonose, revealing not all is what it seems. They learn of traitors who live among them, all the while turning over their own people to the enemy. Leaving King Thoran struggling with his failure to keep a portion of the Dragonose people from living in despair even if he had no prior knowledge. Dr. Quinn never expected to have a mate. He couldn't leave to look for her when the Dragonose population depended on him. But when he is needed on a rescue mission for his people, he finds the mate he has waited a lifetime for. The problem—after the experiences she has endured, she wants no man. Paulina is given a second chance at life, she just doesn't know if she can handle it. Can she put the past behind her and grab a future that promises patience, acceptance, protection, and love? Or will she leave a mate to mourn her loss after just finding her? Join the warriors of Dragonose as they face the enemy in a fight to free their people. All the while proving why they are the king's elite.
