Sunlight through the Shadows Rita Trotman

A story of hope, courage and a new life for three abandoned Romanian teenagers. Set in the orphanages of Romania, the story begins in the early nineties when the west was still unravelling the horrors lurking behind orphanage walls. From the depths of childhood despair to present-day freedom for three boys, the book is an authentic, first-hand account of life in a Romanian village and orphanage.

Rita Trotman intended her visit to Romania in 1991 to be a 'one off' but it has become a life-time commitment. For more than twenty years she has taken aid to the children, enticing her husband to join the mission along the way. Together they raised money to buy a house for three abandoned teenagers who today live independent lives in their village community.

Probably the first detailed, inside account of the orphanages - much of it narrated by three boys who survived the regime.

This is a rare story.
