The Boyfriend Experience: A Steamy Short Story (Ms. Wright's Short Reads) Michaela Wright

Steven is a private escort, and a mighty fine one at that. He takes pride in catering to the needs of his female clientele, from the cut of his suit to the color of his kerchief. Despite experience, there is one client that rattles him; Martina, a passionate woman who treats herself to Steven's services as a birthday present every year. Their liaisons have left Steven with a crush, only driving him further to meet her every need. When Steven arrives at Martina's door he is ready to wine, dine, and please his favorite client, but by night's end we will discover that Martina - and Steven - are not who they seem.

Excerpt from THE BOYFRIEND EXPERIENCE by Michaela Wright

"She pressed her hand to the lapel of his jacket and sighed. "Dear god you look good."

He drew close to her lips, ready to break the barrier that existed between them, between any two people who have similar intentions. She laughed and pulled out of his grasp, shyly. A smile burned his cheeks.

She walked across the suite in her bare feet to a white counter, and retrieved a drink she'd been nursing. She mimed to him that he was free to partake as she sipped clumsily. Unlike him, she wasn't concerned with hiding her nerves.

"So what would you like to do tonight, beautiful?"

She grinned and set her drink back down.

"I could happily spend the evening listening to you call me that. Repeatedly."

"It's your birthday, whatever you like," he said before adding with a smirk, "beautiful."

She fidgeted for a moment, visibly searching for the courage to say something. Finally, she found it, and planted her hands on her hips.

"It seems like such a fucking waste not to take you out and show you off – god you look fucking good - but I think I really just want you to - uh..."

Her tone was confident, but she faltered. He knew once she was comfortable she'd have no problem saying exactly what she wanted.

"Want me to what?"

She glanced at the clock. "It's seven now. When do I have you til?"

"Whenever you like."

"Oh, cut the Boyfriend crap. What time?"

"Ten'o'clock."

She pursed her lips. "Yeah, I think I want to stay in. I have a year's worth to catch up on, if you know what I mean."

He smiled despite the butterflies in his stomach. The year before she'd made him go to a show, and the year before that she'd made him take her dancing, and just about every year he'd taken her to a birthday dinner. Despite looking forward to their bedroom activities all night, he now longed for those hours of preparation, of flirtation to quell the nerves that a man like him shouldn't have. She truly was his favorite, and he looked forward to her every year.

He swallowed and stepped toward her. "Well, what kind of night is it, then?"

She raised an eyebrow. "What do you mean?"

"Are you in a 'bad girl' kind of mood, or a 'sweet girl' kind of mood?"

She visibly shivered before she spoke. "Can it be both?"
