PREPSKILLS® INC.

This full-length, Upper-level SSAT examination is delivered using a paper-based format. The Upper-level SSAT is aimed at those students currently in grades eight to eleven. The test examines students on their verbal reasoning, reading comprehension and quantitative/mathematical analysis (including arithmetic, upper-level geometry and upper-level algebra). It also includes a writing section that assesses a student's ability to produce a written composition within a set period of time. The test takes just over 2 hours to complete. PREPSKILLS® specializes in preparing students for admissions tests to private/independent schools and American universities. As Canada's premier SSAT and SAT preparation provider, we employ a number of different tools to make certain that each and every student is assured in their abilities in order to achieve optimum results.
