Growing up in the South Side of Chicago, Tremont Thug Livingston has seen and done his fair share in the streets. With a Step-Uncle as a Drug Lord and reigning king of the South Side how could he not? Thug is his nickname but once his life takes an ultimate turn for the worse he has to quickly learn how to live up to it. Keisha Red Santos is on her own as she struggles to survive with a mother in prison and little sister on life support. She's on her own for a while until an old friend walks back into her life to save her...or at least he attempts to. Read along as these two teenagers battle their hardships in the city of Chicago where tough times don't last, strong people do.
