Crazy Steven A LaChance

SyFy's Fact or Faked called the "Crazy" location HAUNTED in their episode Truck Stop Terror. They came face to face with the paranormal activity which fans of the book are calling "Crazy " good. Read "Crazy" and watch the episode to find out what all the "Crazy" attention is about! Crazy was called one of the best paranormal and supernatural books of 2010 because it was Crazy good. Written by Steven A. LaChance, author of the worldwide bestseller The Uninvited, Crazy takes you on a journey to the darkest reaches of humanity then slams you on a rollercoaster ride into the lowest levels of hell. Crazy will leave you breathless and questioning what you believe to be true. The book starts with a true story based on a true to life truck stop which examines the ideas of our connection between each other in this life and in the next. It will leave you questioning your actions in this life and how you treat others on a daily basis. It is a dark tale without redemption and a whole lot of soul. From there the book weaves its way in and out through scenario after scenario ending with a nightmare segment which will leave sleeping with the lights on for many days after reading the last word. Crazy makes sense. Crazy is sane thinking. Crazy is fantastic! Read Crazy and find out what those who have read it have already learned. This is the prayer for this generation. This is the lesson we all need to learn. It is time we all get Crazy!
