GO COUGARS

Karen is in her forties, and is growing tired of living in a neighborhood with a bunch of other men and women her age who act as though they're in their last years of life. Everyone around her is boring, prudish, and seemingly disdainful of anything whatsoever that smells even faintly like fun. What she really wants is some young blood to help revitalize her in this dead-end place, and her wish comes true in the form of an eighteen-year-old college student named Kevin who moves in next door. The two of them become intimate quickly and regularly, and the next three weeks are some of the best of her recent life. Soon, though, his college housemates move in, and their antics become so loud and so unruly that Karen is chosen by her neighbors to go and confront them about their disruptiveness. In a houseful of seven guys, however, Karen quickly finds that she's about to become hugely re-educated in the ways of physical lust...

This book contains adult themes, harsh language, and is not intended for under eighteen.
